UPCOMING HOY EVENTS

Thurs, May 1 at 7 PM

“Peregrine Falcons in Wisconsin”

Presented by Greg Septon

Bird and flower hike at 6 PM

River Bend Nature Center, 3600 N Green Bay Rd, Racine

Mr. Septon is a nationally recognized falcon expert. Greg is a Racine native who is active in bird painting, carving, taxidermy, photography, and the recovery of endangered species. He started with the Peregrine Falcon Recovery Program in 1987. He will tell us how these exciting birds of prey have adapted to urban life, and how they have produced 50 young in 19 nests in Wisconsin in 2002.

Refreshments will be served. We will plan for the May Bird Count and hold Elections for the coming year.

Mr. Mueller is a researcher and he will discuss the reasons for the decline and make suggestions for conservation.

Other Hoy Audubon and related Events

*Spring Bird Count
 Saturday May 10*

Small groups will travel about and identify and count birds in an assigned area. Search out birds by car and by foot. This is the peak of the migration period. Contact Eric Howe (info below) to sign up or come to the next Hoy meeting. Many people count the birds in their own back yards as part of this.

Field Trips

April 23 to May 28

Weds. at 5:30 PM at Colonial Park in Racine

Many migratory birds are seen at Colonial Park. We should see many colorful warblers, as well as vireos and sparrows.
